- Have declared in writing by email, to the Trainer Program Director (presently Francine Girard) the intention to apply to the program. The Program Director will announce to the Trainer Community the applicant's intention to join so that the Trainers are aware of them and give them extra support and feedback. THE 100 Day Program Description

Prerequisite and specifications to graduate from the 100 day Program:

- 3 apprenticeships
 - In order to attend an apprenticeship, one has to have done at least 20 days of training in the PoV model, which must include 20 joining session and/or the recommendation of a Psychology of Vision Trainer in order to attend.
 - A joining session is defined as:
 - At least 45 minutes long
 - Downloads may count as long they are at least 45 minutes long, or the whole room, including every participant, got into the miracle.
 - May be in a group setting or in an individual session.
- Taking STL is mandatory to graduate
 - In countries where there is no STL (e.g. Malaysia), students may apply for exceptions in order to be able to graduate from the 100 Day Program. They then might be asked to read a couple of Chuck's or Lency's books and write a report on them to ensure they are familiar with the psychological and spiritual dynamics and principles.
 - STL can count once as a STL participant and another time if as a STL facilitator.
- The remainder 55 days can be taken with any certified Psychology of Vision Trainer.
 - Mini-programs/series count to maximum of 10 days. They must fulfill the series requirements. (See point 4: 'What Constitute a PoV day' below).
- Accomplished within 5 years counted backwards from 100 Day Graduation date intended.
 - For example someone want to graduate in December 2012, the 100 days count all the way back to January 2008. That is 5 years. Or graduation July 2013 goes back and no further to June 2008.

100 Day Graduation Verification Process

- Counting PoV days is the responsibility of Participants.
- Trainers and Promoters must give certificates to all PoV days they give. It is crucial Trainers explain the certificates and the 100 day program to their participants.
- When a participant is getting ready to graduate they need to provide proof of attendance of those 100 days by show of certificates. If participant is missing certificates they ask the facilitator to attest they did indeed participate those days in question.
- There is one local person who verify the 100 days:
 - UK: Alex Patchett-Joyce
 - Europe: Susanne Ernst
 - Japan: VDI- Mami Yoshida
 - Canada: Francine Girard
 - Taiwan- Chinese Speaking: Ian (Yue-Yen) Lai
 - SOI: Krystal (Mei) Hsu

What constitutes a PoV day:

- A PoV workshop day is 6 hours of 'working' hours (lunch and breaks not included). For example: a Saturday or Sunday one-dayer.
- No coaching sessions given by any PoV trainer count toward a PoV day
- No study groups, mini-workshops, forums, etc. count toward PoV day even if led by a trainer
 - Exception can be made if a trainer teaches a series or a mini-program with curriculum (for example 12 evenings), there is a possibility that they might count as days. These mini workshops need to be taught by the same Trainer so that they are process-driven within a closed group. Drop in sessions do not count.
 - If this is the case, the Trainer writes and describes that program and sends it to the Program Director (Francine Girard at present). Given her approval, it can be counted as PoV days.
 - A PoV day from a series/mini-program counts as 3 separate teaching sections. The total sections divided by 3 will be the number of PoV days that can be credited. (For example 12 evenings equals 4 PoV days.)
 - The trainer will hand out a certificate at the end of the program, stating that it was a mini-series, with X-sections in total and the equivalent of $X/3$ per PoV day.
 - Mini-programs counts to a maximum of 20 days.
 - Only 5 PoV days of those 20 days can be under tutelage of non-PoV trainers teaching a PoV program.
 - 8-hour long Webinars by a PoV Trainer equals 1 PoV day.
- An evening part of a PoV workshop counts as 0.5 day, e.g. Friday afternoon/evening through to Sunday counts as 2.5 days. But, if that evening is open to anyone who does not participate in the complete workshop, it does not count as 0.5 day.
- All participants must be at the beginning of the workshop to count as PoV days. Example: Participant may take 3 days out of 5-dayer if they are at the start of the workshop.

- All certificates must have the hours as well as the equivalent days. One PoV day is 6 'working' hours no breaks or lunch included. Trainer can find a template on our Comindwork website. Also Trainers must inform their promoters about certificates.
